

F. L. TO FIGURE IN 1924 CAMPAIGN

To Seek Affiliation With Farmer Vote in Presidential Contest

PLAN POLITICAL PROGRAM

Atlantic City, Sept. 13.—With the arrival of James O'Connell, chairman of the American Federation of Labor's Non-Partisan Political Committee, the executive council of the federation, in an annual session today prepared to devise a program of political activity with which it purposes to enter local, state and national polls at forthcoming elections.

The council has not yet decided to what extent it will attempt to place candidates. That it will enter local and state tickets is assured. Such steps already are being taken in numerous States, it was pointed out.

Members of the council predict that labor will designate at least fifty non-party candidates for seats now occupied by national Senators and representatives who, they declare, are opposed to the aims and ideals of the American Federation of Labor.

Big Factor in 1924 Campaign

That the Federation will attempt, by an affiliation with the farmer vote, to become an important factor in the presidential campaign of 1924 is a foregone conclusion among the labor chiefs here. They declare that the selection of a candidate for the presidency will be a startling surprise to followers of the old parties.

The shop crafts strike and the injunction obtained by Attorney General Daugherty continue to be the all-absorbing topic of discussion between sessions of the Executive Council.

Although it has agreed to take no official action while the extension obtained from Judge Wilkerson at Chicago yesterday remains effective, plans are crystallizing here for combating the injunction with the most effective weapons known to the Federation, money for the shop crafts' war chest to be obtained by the Federation's 666 organizations and the legal and moral aid of the council.

Tells of Aid from Harriman

The manner in which the Harriman banking interests of New York City and the Indiana National Bank, of Indianapolis, helped finance the miners in the recent coal strike was revealed here yesterday by William Green, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America.

Mr. Green, who also is a vice president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here after having negotiated last July in the midst of the coal strike, the sale of bonds which, he said, will bring the total cost of the strike to the United Mine Workers of America well above $1,000,000, exclusive of large sums expended by local unions.

The loan from the Harriman National Bank, amounting to $100,000, was obtained last July in the midst of the coal strike, said Mr. Green. The United Mine Workers "had $1,500,000 tied up in the courts in the Colorado and Pennsylvania mining company suits," he said, and was sorely in need of cash with which to defray strike expenses.

QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA WILL VISIT UNITED STATES

Trip to Be Delayed Until After Coronation

Geneva, Sept. 13.—Queen Marie, of Rumania, still intends to visit the United States, according to Mlle. Helene Vacaresco, alternate Rumanian delegate to the League Assembly. In an interview to the PUBLIC LEDGER yesterday.

"One of my fondest wishes is to visit America and I know that our Queen has that intention as soon as she can leave her country. However, the date is not fixed, as the coronation ceremonies take place late next month, and the Queen is unable to leave for the present."

Mlle. Vacaresco is of Rumanian nobility, whose ancestral estate has been in her family more than 800 years. "We shall have women suffrage very soon in my country," she continued. "In fact I believe it will be included in the new Constitution now being prepared. You will judge the high position of women in Rumania because when my name was proposed in Parliament for the assembly of the League, the only member who got up to speak against me was shouted down."

AMUNDSEN ICEBOUND

Polar Expedition Establishes Quarters for Winter at Wainwright Nome, Alaska, Sept. 13.—(By A. P.)—Captain Roald Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, who last summer left here on a Polar expedition, is in winter quarters at Wainwright, on the Arctic Ocean, seventy-five miles southwest of Point Barrow, according to the last communications received from him.

Travelers arriving here recently on the coast guard cutter Bear talked with Captain Amundsen at Wainwright. A teacher in the United States Bureau of Education named Ward was told by Amundsen that plans were final to spend the winter there. Amundsen had then begun setting up portable dwellings.

Unless some vessel now in Arctic waters should bring word, it is not expected that communication can be had with Captain Amundsen until next summer.

This Unprecedented Favor For Type 61 Is An Appreciation of Quality

IT is now generally known that Type 61 is enjoying a degree of public preference unexampled in Cadillac history.

Cadillac's greatest previous sales records have been exceeded by a margin so wide as to establish completely Type 61 leadership.

The builders of the Cadillac have never made mere volume of production their goal.

But volume of preference as a natural and spontaneous recognition of Cadillac quality is a tribute for which the Cadillac organization is wholeheartedly grateful.

And that is exactly what this extraordinary preference for Type 61 represents. It is an endorsement and an appreciation of the quality standards to which Cadillac for twenty years has religiously adhered.

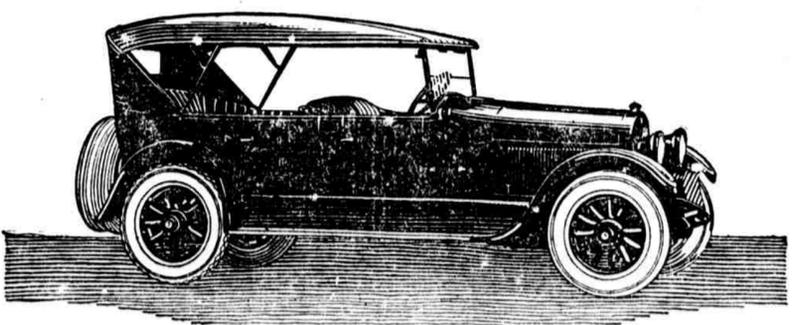

As such, it inspires Cadillac craftsmen to even deeper and stronger allegiance to those standards.

You who contemplate purchasing a Type 61 may know positively that it is the product of supreme manufacturing standards and that it is unquestionably the finest Cadillac ever built.
